NEW DELHI

ENTIRE DELHI KEPT AWAKE TO WITNESS THE HISTORIC EVENT OF USHERING IN THE FREEDOM OF INDIA AT THE HOUR OF MIDNIGHT. Unprecedented scenes of enthusiasm were witnessed both inside and outside the Central Chamber, where seething, seething, cheered the momentous event, heralding of a new era.

Raising to the height of the occasion, a speech in the Assembly which was at once a piece of history.

"Years ago we made a toast with 'and now the hour comes when we shall not only be in full measure, but very of the stroke of the midnight hour, when India will awake to life and freedom'."

With becoming him, Pandit Nehru, that freedom and peace to the people of India is not only a right, but a duty, so that we may build the bridge we have the one we shall have today.

(Choudhury) Kishore Kumar, leader of the Muslim League group, in a warm speech, which he ended by saying that the Indian people, moved by Pandit Nehru's vision of the adoption of the pledge and the sacred 'third and last' operation of the Muslims of India, in celebrating the birth of a new India.

Crowds In Festive

THE national flag was hoisted over Bombay City Secretariat at midnight as Bombay greeted the dawn of independence and freedom.

"Citizens of free India—your are now free!" said the Prime Minister, Mr. B. G. Khan, in a speech which was attended by all Ministers and departmental heads and employees of the Bombay Government. The chairman was greeted with a cheer from the thousands who gathered at the opportunity to this event.

A strong crowd kept order with the greatest of cheer and the flag was hoisted over the building.
